Dear Mr. Carter,

I am writing you again regarding the situation in Georgetown, Guyana South America.

I would appreciate you looking into this matter as quickly as possible. These people need someone to help them get out of this drastic place as they cannot leave, on their own. My son is E-B6 there, & I would appreciate very much if you will, with the help of God bring him back home, along with the other people.

We cannot get in contact with these people in person

Nor can we contact them by telephone,

These are our love ones, & we want them home. Please help us get them back.

Sincerely

[redacted]
